May ? 55. Information of Joshua Garment that Col. Pine and others were concerned in a petition, which went through many places for subscription, that the late King should be brought to justice, as being the main instrument in hindering the work of the Lord; Thomas Colloer of Westbury, near Wells, said he was the author of it; also notices of others who are resolved against kingly power; is a faithful subject, and will try to discover the murderers of the late King.
